City of New Ulm Statement about Eric Gramentz

NEW ULM, Minn — City of New Ulm Investigator Eric Gramentz is currently on leave from employment with the city.

Gramentz has been employed by the city since February 27, 2005. Gramentz was responsible for investigating crimes, documenting the details of the investigation, and providing courtroom testimony.

The city is confident that its police department will continue to serve the community safely, effectively, and efficiently.

The city has no further comments about this matter due, primarily, to Minnesota's government data privacy laws.
