

Re: Your Hypocritical Censorship of the Cop Blaster

From Stephen Oatley on 2020-07-28 10:38

From Stephen Oatley

To webmaster@copblaster.com

Date Tue 10:38

All headers...

 Details  Plain text

This is a scummy thing to do and you know that. I banned you because you heard me say I did not want that in my chat, and then posted not once but twice. It is a scummy thing to do, and you sir are a scumbag for doing so. Again, that is my opinion on my page.

Move on with whatever you do for your life and grow up

On Tue, Jul 28, 2020 at 4:33 AM Cop Blaster <webmaster@copblaster.com> wrote:

Steve,

Calling someone a scumbag for posting the list of U.S. Marshals' names is like calling them a scumbag for calling your Stephen Oatley. I say that because as far as I can tell that list of Marshals' names was compiled from LinkedIn, Facebook, and media research. The Marshals themselves are usually the ones that put their names out there for people to find. Those protesters just made a list of them. Don't believe me? Search for the individual names <https://copblaster.com/blast/25878/names-of-u-s-marshals-read-out-loud-by-protesters> online using LinkedIn, Facebook, and Google.

If posting their addresses is so dangerous why don't they simply buy property through a trust? I have told them to do that several times over the years but they just ignore me. Then when people re-post them or picket those locations they just bitch about it <https://copblaster.com/blast/25849/federal-complaint-regarding-posted-addresses-indicates-bigger-problems?>

The subject line is titled "Your Hypocritical Censorship" because you claim all views are welcome, but you don't just ban people for doxing. You banned National Cop Watch Report for posting a link to a federal court decision in which the court held that it is not illegal to post personal information about law enforcement officers. Please read the decision before you say that it is not free speech <https://www.courtlistener.com/opinion/2541111/brayshaw-v-city-of-tallahassee-fla/>

You probably think I'm just another libtard, but I actually used to be more of a conservative. Before I learned how the liberals treat people that piss them off royally while living law abiding lives for the most part. When they finally catch you doing something they throw the book at you no matter how petty the offense or what mitigating circumstances there are. Then they use your lawful actions that they find highly offensive as aggravating factors. Let me give you a hypothetical example, you decide to come to Portland and Antifa find recognizes you, they threaten your safety, so you pull out a gun and tell them to keep their distance, then you tell the police what they did, but they have you on camera with a gun so you get charged with unlawful use of a firearm, menacing, etc. and get the maximum sentence allowed by law because a liberal judge decides that you were the bad guy for knowingly causing them emotional distress. Do you really think that could not happen? If it does I will be the first to call those charges bullshit because I oppose police misconduct no matter what the political ideology of the victim is.

If you ever really want to have a dialog about this stuff contact me.

Sincerely,

Cop Blaster: Police Misconduct Reporting and Monitoring

P.O. Box 86653

Portland, OR 97286

<https://copblaster.com>

webmaster@copblaster.com

(503)908-9256

COPBLASTER
.COM